

C-27J SPARTAN FOR THE JCA PROGRAM

MEDIA ADVISORY

C-27J Team Press Conference at Le Bourget To Discuss Award of Joint Cargo Aircraft Program

WHAT: A C-27J Team press conference will be held on Tuesday, June 19 at (9 AM GMT +1) to discuss the U.S. Army and U.S. Air Force Joint Cargo Aircraft Program contract recently awarded to the C-27J team.

The JCA program calls for a new multifunctional and interoperable cargo aircraft capable of performing logistical re-supply, MEDEVAC, troop movement, airdrop operations, humanitarian assistance and missions in support of Homeland Security.

The C-27J is led by L-3 Integrated Systems, a subsidiary of L-3 (NYSE:LLL) with Finmeccanica's Alenia North America and Boeing's Integrated Defense Systems (NYSE:BA) as team members.

Executives from each of the three companies will be present to make brief statements and answer questions.

WHERE: Le Bourget, Paris Air Show
C-27J Static Display
Adjacent to Finmeccanica Chalet A-374

WHEN: June 19, 2007
9 AM (GMT +1)

For additional information, please contact:

Edie Cartwright, L-3 IS, (903) 457-4604, edie.cartwright@L-3com.com

Ben Stone, Alenia North America, (202) 293-3433, bstone@aleniainc.com

Rick Sanford, Boeing, (562) 593-7512, rick.sanford@boeing.com

###